BURNED TO DEATH.

Seven Men Perish in a Boarding House

Five in Pennsylvania.

BEAVER, Pa., Nov. 22.—At Merrill station on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road at 4:30 o'clock this morning the three story hotel owned by Bradley & Keenock was destroyed by fire in half an hour. There were thirty-five boarders in the second and third floors, many of whom jumped from the windows and were badly cut, bruised and burned. After a census of the boarders could be taken it was found that the following had been lost:

JERRY WHEELS, a stone mason, aged 40.
JOHN KELLEY, laborer at Woodbury, aged 40.

HORACE STANLEY, engineer, aged 30, of New York.

JAMES HORNIG of Chillicothe and HARRY WALKER stone mason of Allentown.

CHARLES P. MILLER, a tinsmith of Allentown.

Henry Walker, son of Barney Walker, is badly burned and a nephew of James Wink of Beaver Falls was drowned, while James Walker, son of Barney Walker, was badly burned about the face and hands.

I. O. O. F. GRAND ENCAMPMENT

The Order Growing in This Country at an Unprecedented Rate.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 22.—The forty-sixth annual session of the grand encampment of the Old Fellow's of the United States began here this morning with a good attendance. The net increase in membership during 1892 was over 50,000—unprecedented in the history of the order—and from what has been learned from the increase this year it will be greater than last year. The total membership to-day, including the Sisters of Rebekah, branch is estimated at over 1,000,000.

WILS HOWARD MUST DIE.

The Notorious Eastern Kentucky Desperado sentenced for a Missouri Murder.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 22.—Judge Sherwood filed an opinion in Division No. 2 of the supreme court to-day affirming the judgment against Wilson Howard, convicted in Laclede county of a murder in Marion county and sentencing him to be hanged December 1. He is accused of committing some twenty-seven murders and he has now cost the state nearly $10,000. He came to Missouri from Eastern Kentucky where a long list of murders is charged to him.

DIRECTUM DEFEATS ALIX.

He Proves Himself Easily the King of All the Trotters.

FLEETWOOD PARK, Nov. 22.—In the Directum-Alix race the first heat was won by Directum in 2:15½ by two lengths. The horses were neck and neck to the half when Alix broke badly. The last ten lengths Directum made a break and Alix galloped three or four lengths.

LYNCHED IN SHORT ORDER.

A Brute Strung Up on the Principal Business Street of Ottumwa, Ia.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Nov. 22.—On the principal street of this city yesterday afternoon a mob seized a man named Johnson who had brutally assaulted a 6-year-old girl Monday night, quickly put a rope about his neck and lynched him short order.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS CAR.

ODGEN, Utah, Nov. 21.—As the Rio Grande and Western train pulled into Odgen at 1 o'clock this morning, Express Messenger Sayers failed to open his car. The door was forced and the messenger was found on the floor dead with a bullet through his heart and pistol under him. It is supposed that he was about to lock the safe when the pistol was accidentally discharged. His books and money are intact and there is no suspicion of foul play.

THE ENGLISH GATE ENDED.

LODGE, Nov. 22.—Telegrams received to-day show that the terrible gale which has raged since Friday last and which has caused such a great loss of life and property, has subsided. There is no reason to change the estimate of the loss of 300 lives as a result of the storm.

ATCHISON HAS A CRANK.

ATCHISON, Kan., Nov. 22.—A dangerous crank, giving his name as Christ Boston, was arrested here last night. He said he had been divinely appointed to destroy wicked persons and carried several dangerous weapons.

In a saloon fight at Checotah, L. T., Sam Smith, an Indian and Harvey Lindsey, white, carved each other fat.

KANSAS CITY LIVE STOCK.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 22.—Carries, 1000 head shipping steers, 7000 calves, 2000 sheep, 1000 lambs. The market was extremely dull and the price lower than Saturday, cows and calves steady. Feeders and bulls weak to lower. Texas cows and steers steady.
